BACK TO SCHOOL

It's hard to believe that it's already time to get ready for school again. We know how hard it is to make ends meet and get all those dreaded school supplies. So to make it easier, we've enclosed a $5 no strings attached certificate with this newsletter. Bring it in before the end of the month and we'll help you out the best we can.

NLR SPIRIT NIGHT

Sunday, August 2nd will be the first annual spirit night at the Lakewood location. We will have the Spirit Truck, players, spirit squads and pizza outside for $1.00 per slice. We'll also be giving you an opportunity to sign up as an Athletic Booster.

Come out and join in all the fun and cheer on the Charging Wildcats.

August 9 -22nd is Arkansas Hospice Restaurant Week. Come into either American Pie during those weeks, order one of the two specials we'll have listed, and we'll donate $5 to Arkansas Hospice for every special ordered. Arkansas Hospice is a great organization that have helped numerous families during one of the toughest times in their lives. I am sure they have either helped your family or someone you know. They are a great organization is our community. So we are looking forward to helping them out anyway we can.

On August 9th they will be having the kick off party at the River Market from 4-6. For only $25, you can sample food from restaurants around Little Rock that will be participating in Restaurant Week. Be sure and come join us during these 2 weeks to help out Arkansas Hospice.

American Idol Fun

We ended up with 3 winners to our American Idol contest: Jim Lutjen, Ann Bingheimer and Beth Lindsey. I know they all had a great time at the concert, I heard Kris and Adam were both awesome.

Wish I could have been there.

We learned to drink wine, so that you can really taste it, yes there is a way to do that, how to smell a wine and why people swish wine around in their mouths on the first swallow (to rinse the mouth of any other flavors). All in all it was a good time and I learned some new things about wine and wine tasting. We hope to have another class, so if you would be interested, please let us know.

- In Rhode Island, it's not permissible to own a cap gun.
- In Alabama, it's against the law to play Dominoes on Sundays.
