Days of Summer Picture Contest

Summer is here and it's time to take off with the family for that great vacation you have all been waiting for. American Pie wants you to take us with you. Okay maybe you don't have enough room in your suitcase for all of us, but how about one of our shirts. Take a picture with you and your family in an American Pie T-Shirt. Come up with your craziest place to take a picture and enter it in our contest. The winner will receive a dinner for 4 (up to $30 value) and a Nikon Coolpix from Bedford's Camera. Pictures will be voted on by the customers at the restaurant and from our Facebook page. T-shirts are only $15 and can be worn anywhere. So get your T-shirts, take them on vacation and e-mail me your best pics to americanpiepizza@sbcglobal.net.

Final Entry Date: August 15th midnight.

Draw Date: August 30th, 2009

A brief history of honoring Dad

The “mother” of Father’s Day was Sonora Smart Dodd, according to many historians. The daughter of a widowed Civil War veteran who had raised her on his own, Dodd came up with the idea when listening to a Mother’s Day sermon in 1909. She held her own special tribute for her father on June 19, 1910, in Spokane, Wash., and began a campaign for an official celebration thereafter.

Initially the idea of Father’s Day was met with skepticism. But in 1919, President Calvin Coolidge expressed support for the holiday, and in 1926 a National Father’s Day Committee was formed in New York City to join the campaign. In 1966 President Lyndon Johnson signed a proclamation designating the third Sunday in June as Father’s Day, but it wasn’t until 1972 that President Richard Nixon officially recognized it as a national holiday.

The official flower of Father’s Day is the rose: red for fathers who are still living, and white for fathers who have passed away.

Origins of Culinary Terms

Here are some interesting origins of common food terms:

Eclair — this cream-filled pastry gets its name from the French word for “lightning.” Not because the log-shaped desserts look like lightning bolts but because people often eat them lightning fast.

Lima bean — these beans were first cultivated hundreds of years ago in Peru. They get their name from that country’s capital city.

Restaurant — originally, this word referred to hearty soups, which got their name from the French verb “to restore.” In time, it was used to denote the shops that sold these soups and eventually to eating establishments in general.

Pasta — this comes from the Greek verb “passein,” meaning “to sprinkle or strew” as one would sprinkle pasta into boiling water to cook it.

FREE PIZZA!

Each month we’ll give you a new trivia question. Bring in your entry, or fill one out while you are here. The first one drawn at the end of the month with the correct answers will win a FREE Pizza valued up to $16.00.

Here is this month’s trivia question:

While June remains the month with the most weddings, what other two months vie equally for second place according to the Association of Professional Wedding Consultants?

- 1) July and August
- 2) December and February
- 3) September and October

The first 10 people to answer correctly will be in the draw to WIN! Congratulations Jeff Pace who answered last month’s trivia question correctly and has received a FREE Pizza, he knew that Mother's day was first suggested in 1872 by Julia Ward Howe as a day of Peace

WATCH PARTY WINNERS

We had a great time at both of our American Idol watch parties. At Lakewood we were also lucky enough to have Sync magazine there. The pictures are in their current issues or you can also look them up online at sync.arkansasonline.com. We also took some pictures and you can look them up on our Facebook page, just search American Pie Pizza and look for our logo.

The Grand Prize Winners were rewarded with 2 tickets to the upcoming American Idol show, a room at the historic Capital Hotel and dinner for 2 at American Pie Pizza. They're all set to go for July 25th. Congratulations to all our winners. I wish I had enough tickets to give out to everyone that was there, but we definitely had a good time that night and was both shocked and pleased with the results of Kris Allen winning – GO KRIS!!!

Jim and Evan Lutje – Lakewood Winners

Ann Bingheim and Family – Maumelle Winners

For all the American idol watch party pictures go to our Facebook page and check it out. Thank you to the Capital Hotel for their generous donation and to Javen for helping us with the tickets and to our customers who came out and cheered Kris on to victory.

You get the best out of others when you give the best of yourself.
